

Breezy Paragraphs From the Kicker

A Political Discussion That Came Near Ending in Murder.

[Copyright, 1906, by Eugene Parcells.]
MR. JIM HELISO (who is ourself) wishes the Kicker to deny in the most vigorous language that he is thinking of resigning his position as postmaster of this gulch. He dies now and then, but he never resigns.

Mr. Jim Heliso (who is ourself) paid a short visit to Denver last week and did not blow out the gas.

Mr. Jim Heliso (who is ourself) blew down the barrel of a new shotgun on exhibition at Kramer's the other day. It wasn't loaded.

Mr. Jim Heliso (who is ourself) informs us that alterations and improvements to the Heliso Opera House will cost $2,000. One hundred pounds of lead was dug out of the ceiling last week.

Mr. Jim Heliso (who is ourself) has asked the Kicker to deny in thunderous tones that he contemplates organizing a wild west show and taking the road next summer in opposition to Buffalo William. His show has been right here in Givensdam Gulch for the last eight years.

It is quite true that the editor of the Kicker and the governor of the territory met at Florence the other day and had a long and confidential talk, but there is not a grain of truth in the statement that they played poker for ten hours on a stretch and that the result was bad for the governor. We and the governor were on our dignity all the time. Had he suggested poker we should have discouraged the idea.

Colonel Joe Skelly of the Big 4 ranch informs us that he felt and counted ninety-eight distinct shocks of an earthquake last Sunday. We have not the slightest hesitation in pronouncing Colonel Joe a liar. If he was sober enough to feel or hear anything it was one of his old mules rolling on the grass.

Edward Jones and Peter Howard, both of this town, met on the street last Sunday and resumed a political discussion, with the result that guns were drawn and ten shots fired. No one was killed, no one wounded. The men stood and looked at each other in astonishment for a moment after the firing and then each ran in the opposite direction. Oh, yes; Arizona will be admitted to the Union, when the robins nest again!

There is neither law nor ordinance in this whole territory against speeding automobiles. They can skip along at a rate of 100 miles an hour. On the contrary, there is no law against any citizen taking a pop at a chauffeur with his gun if he feels so minded, and he is pretty sure to feel that way. If you own an auto and are looking for a paradise, come this way and get a free burial.

A Chicago man who was looking for real estate in this locality went over to Lone Jack the other day to buy a large block of town lots. On visiting the graveyard he found that only twenty-one people had died in three years. He did not buy. He realized that a town that couldn't do better than that was a slow town and had no future.

We understand that certain members of the only church choir in Givensdam Gulch object to our leading the singing because we play poker, own a race horse and a fighting dog and take a nip with the boys occasionally. We don't suppose it is exactly according to the eternal fitness of things, but until society has safely passed through the chaotic state and can stand alone we shall stick to our singing job and back it up with two guns. Meanwhile we shall sing with ardor and with as much reverence as we can.
